

Allison Ruiz is Huggins Credit Union 2024 Scholarship Winner

Allison Ruiz was selected as Huggins Credit Union 2024 scholarship winner to pursue a CERTIFICATE IN CREDIT UNION MANAGEMENT at Cipriani College of Labour and Co-Operative Studies.

The Education Committee got responses from two (2) members of the credit union. Allison, a mother of one, was selected after the other applicant informed Ms. Briggs, the Education Committee - Chairperson of their unavailability to persue the course.

Ms. Ruiz, is employed for the past twenty years with Courts Unicomer and is a proud member of Huggins Credit Union for over ten years. She said, "It is a great privilege to be a part of this society and I am very grateful and thankful to be this year's Credit Union Management Scholarship winner."

The Education Committee will embark on several projects in 2024 to educate members while improving the visibility of the Credit Union. It will be another exciting year for the membership and committee.
